GLOBAL ACTION AGENDA

The 3 international hosts, the International Association of Schools of Social Work, the International Council on Social Welfare and the International Federation of Social Workers, have agreed to engage in a joint process to build an agenda for social work and social development for the next decade, linked to the 2010 Joint World Conference. The intention was to stimulate a global debate involving member organisations, individual social workers, development experts and partner agencies. It is hoped that the ‘Hong Kong Agenda’ will have international significance and will be influential.

The 3 organisations have been discussing the process for over 3 years and have involved the organizers of the 2010 Joint World Conference. Information has been sent to member organisations from time to time, and there were sessions on the agenda in various regional or world conferences of the 3 organisations in past 2 years.

Each organisation takes responsibility for 3 areas and has published discussion papers to stimulate web-based discussion. The papers are:

- Ageing and older adults (IFSW)
- Disability and mental health (IASSW)
- Global financial crisis (ICSW)
- Human trafficking (ICSW)
- Poverty eradication: the role of social work (IFSW)
- Service user/consumer involvement and social work (IFSW)
- Social protection floor initiative (ICSW)
- Social work and disasters (IASSW)
- Youth Issue and Social Work (IASSW)

IFSW has added a fourth paper on health and social work. These papers are available from the following websites:

- Papers by IASSW  www.iassw-aiets.org/conference_guestbook.php
- Papers by ICSW  www.icsw.org/globalev/globalevf.htm#hongkong
- Papers by IFSW  www.ifsw.org/f38000348.html

The 2010 Joint World Conference has been structured around consideration of the agenda and there will be 6 consultative sessions aiming to draw out key elements to include in a final statement. There is a team of rapporteurs who will work on preparing the agenda statement during the conference and they will provide feedback to the conference each day. On the final day a Hong Kong Agenda will be presented to the conference.

The conference will not be asked to amend or vote on the Agenda because it is not a representative forum. However it is hoped that the conference will accept the Agenda as a positive outcome from the conference. Each of the 3 global organisations will then take the Agenda from the conference into their own delegate meetings. It is hoped that each organisation will then formally endorse the Agenda and use this to inform their action plan for the next 2 years. Stockholm 2012 will build on the outcomes from Hong Kong 2010 and enable a review of the Hong Kong Agenda.

It is hoped that the Agenda will influence United Nations and other global and regional bodies and will be used as a basis for lobbying, advocacy and campaigning. For the first time, the 3 global organisations will have a policy and advocacy agenda which has come out of a global consultative process and also endorsed by their respective members.

This is of course a challenging process. There are procedural and political problems in aiming to endorse one statement in 3 different General Meetings. However, IASSW and IFSW have been able to adopt such processes when approving the Definition of Social Work and the Global Standards for Social Work Qualifications. It is hoped that it will be possible to adopt a similar procedure for the Hong Kong Agenda.

The 6 consultative sessions will be held from 6pm to 7pm on June 11 and 12. The topics and venues of these sessions are:

June 11 (18:00 – 19:00)
- Rm 225, HKCEC Ageing (chaired by IFSW)
- Rm 226, HKCEC Family, Children and Youth (chaired by IASSW)
- Rm 227, HKCEC Life Course Challenges (chaired by IFSW and IASSW)

June 12 (18:00 – 19:00)
- Rm 225, HKCEC Equity & Social Inclusion (chaired by IFSW and ICSW)
- Rm 226, HKCEC Social Protection (chaired by ICSW)
- Rm 227, HKCEC Sustainable Environment (chaired by IASSW)

The Chief Rapporteurs appointed by the 3 international hosts are:
- Prof. Abye TASSE (IASSW)
- Mr. Charles ABBEY (ICSW)
- Dr. Gary BAILEY (IFSW)
